COLLABORATION
IN SANTA FE

WHERE: Tecolote Café, 1616 St. Michaels Drive, Santa Fe, NM

WHEN: Tuesday, February 26 2019, 11:45 am to 1:00 pm

WHO: Participants in collaborative groups around Santa Fe

Come out to Tecolote Café on Tuesday, February 26, at 11:45 am for lunch and a conversation with members of Santa Fe's collaborative organizations on how to make collaborative groups more effective, more fun and more focused. We will explore ways to improve the practice and process of collaboration. We also are working on building a network among Santa Fe's forest collaboratives, to benefit from each other's strengths.

11:45—12:00 Arrive, Order lunch

♦ Tecolote Café has a variety of entrees for about $10 to $15

12:00—12:20 Introductions & overview of the collaborative groups represented and current projects

12:20—12:30 Highlights from CCC Needs Assessment (2017)

12:30—12:50 Challenges in collaborative practice and process

♦ Identify how partners in your collaborative group work well together and what your organization could do to improve collaboration

12:50—1:00 Questions, closing comments, wrap up

Please RSVP to awbarton@nmhu.edu to ensure we'll have enough space
We would like 1 to 3 members of each collaborative group to attend
