Trees For High Desert Communities

- Rocky Mountain Juniper
  - Juniperus scopulorum
  - Small native evergreen tree.
  - Many varieties available.

- Texas Madrone
  - Arbutus xalapensis
  - Medium native deciduous tree with beautiful peeling bark, flowers, and fruit.
  - Many varieties available.

- Persian Olive
  - Olea europaea
  - Medium native evergreen tree with white flowers.
  - Many varieties available.

- Mescalberry
  - Arbutus xalapensis
  - Large native deciduous tree with beautiful peeling bark.
  - Many varieties available.

- Escarpment Live Oak
  - Quercus phellos
  - Large native evergreen shade tree with broad spreading crown.
  - Many varieties available.

- Stout Willow
  - Salix exigua
  - Large native deciduous tree with bright yellow leaves in the spring.
  - Many varieties available.

- Western Soapberry
  - Sapindus drummondii
  - Large native deciduous shade tree with good yellow fall color.
  - Many varieties available.

- Mexican Redbud
  - Cercis canadensis
  - Attractive small deciduous native tree with glossy red flowers and pink flowers in the spring.

- Desert Willow
  - Chilopsis linearis
  - Medium native deciduous tree that flowers spring through summer.
  - Provides filtered shade.

- Chinese Pistache
  - Pistacia chinensis
  - Medium deciduous shade tree that provides fall color.

- Bur Oak
  - Quercus macrocarpa
  - Large native deciduous shade tree with distinctive forms and colors.
  - Many varieties available.